

My telephone privacy is very important to me. I am a writer and need quiet to do my work. I am shocked that a group of banks has petitioned the FCC to weaken Indiana's telephone privacy law, and I urge you to reject their irresponsible and selfish request. With thanks, David Keppel